Devon & Cornwall

are the most picturesque and scenic counties in the UK, full of unique geography that gives its residents access to moorland, hills, rivers, forests and coastline that other parts of the country can only dream of.

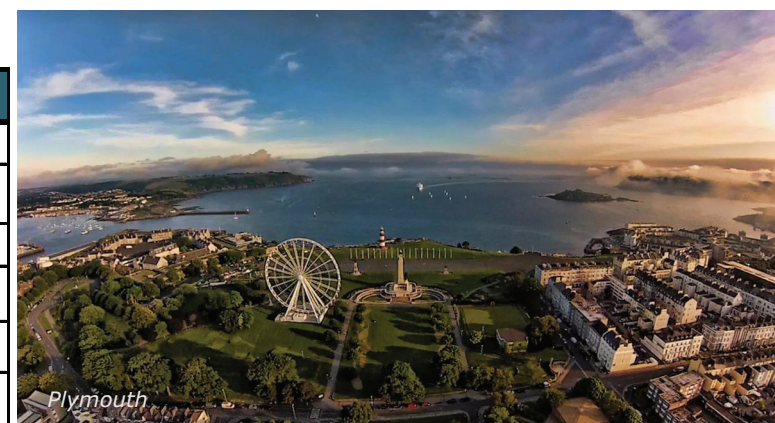

Plymouth

is a bustling, energetic seaside city with stunning views and a rich maritime history. The city is a cultural hub of the South West and your gateway to a fantastic, one-of-a-kind experience in England. Its unique location on the edge of Devon and in sight of the Cornish border makes it the perfect base from which to access some of the very best sights and attractions that the UK has to offer.
